Elkwood Park Entry Is Ruled + Out for Foul and Col. Vennie Is Awarded the Walden Stake.

STROMBOLI SCORES WIN

Baitimore, Nov. 6.—Celandria was first home in the Wafden Stakes at Pimlico this afternoon, but the stewards disqualitied the Elikwood Park Stable's filly for an alleged—foul at the head of the stretch, giving the race to Jefferson Edvingston's imported colt, Colonel Vennie, who finished a nose behind Celandria. Colonel Vennie was much the best, however, for his saddle slipped early in the running, and McTaggart rode practically bareback all through the race. St. Rock, August Belmoft's entry, stumbled at the start and closed a big gap. Baltimore, Nov. 6.-Celandria was first

Revery, of New York University,

Elected to the Assembly.

New York University is jubilant over the election to the assembly from the Twenty-first district on Tuesday of Thomas Thorton Reilley. Mr. Reiliey is the football coach at the university, and his candidacy was keenly watched by alumni and undergraduates, many of whom aided him in his campaign.

VANDE looked to have found its stride it slumped off into a 17-0 defeat at the hands of Lafayette, whose eleven two weeks earlier had been beaten by Princeton, 40-3. Yet the Quakers were beaten in this game largely because they fumbled atroclously and used no headwork at all. That game was chiefly notable for the stellar work of two backs, Ross and Williams, They carried the ball in sustained fashion and in a manner that suggested the days of the guards and tackles back. But their good work only went for naught because the moment the ball was gotten withit striking distance a fumble or the wrong play lost it. The Quakers' greatest weak ness has been at quarter back. Berry, Rie the man who started out with such brilliant prospects, has shown no ability as Kriege a field general and will probably be displaced by Bell. If Pennsylvania can satisfactorily solve the quarter back problem the team may yet be a winner.

Country School Champs of Baltimore Fail to Halt Brewer.

FINNEY BOOTS ONE OVER

That much-talked-of Gilman Country school football team, of Baltimore, came o Washington and exhibited their wares. but there was nothing puzzling to them before long the old ball game was on Hi scoring all five touchdowns, besides kicking the three goals, making his total as well as the total of his team read 32 to 3. Wallace and Stubbs helped Brewer to no small extent, but it was "Untz" in the pinch, and each time he delivered. Rust and Johnson, the flankers of the Alban's team, were also in their glory. as they broke through at all times, stop-ping plays before they were well under way, besides sliding through interference and getting the man time and time Hardy and getting the man time and time again. Until Finney went into the game for Hopkins, with one minute to play, and kicked a goal from the field, the visitors never had a chance to score. McCauley McCauley McCauley McCauley

red. visitors never had a chance to score, and probably would not have scored on the score of the condition of the verdict hinged on the result of the kick.

Mitchell was the only visiting man able to gain ground, and his advancing act could not offset that of any of the St. Alban's back field. This victory puts the St. Albans in first place for the intersectional prep championahip, as the Army and Navy preps only ran up a 12 to 6 against the total made by the St. Albans. It is hardly possible that the Albans. It is hardly possible that the Army and Navy can stop the Wisconsin avenue team, though when they meet it will be some battle royal. The line-up schaffer.

NAVY CAPTURES GAME FROM BUCKNELL TEAM

Pennsylvanians Put Up Great Fight Against Annapolis Eleven, Losing by 13 to 3 Score.

Annapolis, Nov. 6 .- Showing that they still lack the necessary "punch" and that what virtue there is in them either in at-tack of defense is dependent almost entirely upon Martin, Orr, and other firstyear men. Navy football players managed to squeeze out a 13 to 3 victory over Bucknell this afternoon.

mot deliver the goods when the sayand in was passed.
Their only variation of old-fushioned set football, two forward-pass formations, were erratic in the extreme, appearing to hit or miss affairs in which little protections was given the men at either end of the play. Although Bucknell was beaten, and the Salara could not even score until the Sailors could not even score until
